

LULU LUYAO CHANG

BIO

Lulu Luyao Chang (b.1996, Hyogo, Japan) is a multimedia artist currently based in New York who works primarily in installation, sculpture, and video. Born in Japan and raised in Beijing, their work explores the politics of the unsaid, from social norms to explicit repressions around issues of sex, recognition, and labor. Identifying as non-binary, they constantly strive to amplify the voices of sexual minorities, especially within China's blaring, chauvinist rhetoric of national becoming, in order to create a more inclusive historical archive. They received a bachelor's degree in art history from Central Academy of Fine Arts in Beijing in 2019, and currently study in the MFA Fine Arts program at the School of Visual Arts in New York.
